A Companion upon whom Honorary Past District Grand Rank has been conferred under this Law, shall be entitled to wear the regalia of a Past District Grand Officer of equivalent Rank. Companions, on whom this honour has been conferred, shall rank after the holder and past holders of the District Grand Rank to which they have been appointed.

1. In any District of 30 or more Chapters, two Honorary Past District Grand Officers, of whom one may be a District Grand Chief Scribe in each other year, the other to be of lesser Rank.
 2. In any District of less than 30 Chapters, one Honorary Past District Grand Officer of lesser rank than District Grand Chief Scribe, but once in every five years the Rank may be District Grand Chief Scribe.
59. A District Grand King of any District Grand Royal Arch Chapter outside Ireland on the advice and with the consent of his District Grand Royal Arch Chapter, may confer Honorary Membership of such District Grand Royal Arch Chapter on such District First Grand Principals of recognised Sister Constitutions having Royal Arch Chapter meetings in his District as he shall consider worthy of this distinction. He shall inform the Grand King immediately such distinction has been conferred.

Provincial Grand Superintendents

60. The Provincial Grand Superintendents duties shall be similar in all respects to those of the District Grand Kings. Such Provincial Grand Superintendents may, with the approval of the Grand King, appoint a Provincial Deputy Grand Superintendent, who must be a Past King and subscribing member of a Royal Arch Chapter in the locality for which they may be appointed.

of Royal Arch Committees of Inspection

61. At all Committees of Inspection, it is a breach of Masonic Duty on the part of any Companion present at any meeting of the Committee of Inspection, to disclose outside such Committee the name of any member in connection with any observations made at such meeting.

62. Royal Arch Committees of Inspection may be set up in Districts, if required, and may draw up their own rules, subject to the approval of the District Grand Royal Arch Chapter having jurisdiction over the area and Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter.
63. A Committee of Inspection shall not take into consideration the eligibility of any Candidate for Exaltation, until such Candidate shall have been balloted for and approved in the Royal Arch Chapter he proposes to join, and shall have obtained his Grand Lodge Certificate.
64. All names to be submitted to a Committee of Inspection, should be sent to the respective Registrar before the Meeting of the Committee in accordance with its rules and should detail full names, addresses, occupation and Lodge number of each Candidate.

In like manner, it shall be the duty of District Committees of Inspection to decide on the eligibility of Candidates in their respective Districts in accordance with such regulations as shall be approved by Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter.

of Subordinate Royal Arch Chapters

65. No Royal Arch Chapter shall be held unless a Warrant thereof shall have been previously issued by Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter; the mode of application for which shall be by petition, signed by at least nine Royal Arch Masons, the majority of whom must be registered in the books of Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter, who are Mark Master Masons, and who must also be registered Master Masons of not less than five years' standing, and at the time subscribing Members of some Lodge under the Grand Lodge of Ireland. The applicants shall specify in their petition the place where the Royal Arch Chapter is to meet, together with the names of the intended Excellent King, High Priest and Chief Scribe, and Officers of the Royal Arch Chapter and shall undertake on the part of the proposed Royal Arch Chapter to conform strictly to the ritual, Laws and Regulations of Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter.

66. A Companion who signs the Memorial for a New Warrant and does not withdraw his name before the Constitution of the Royal Arch Chapter or offer a sufficient reason for his failure so to withdraw his name, is deemed to be a Founder-member of the Royal Arch Chapter and therefore liable for dues from the date of Constitution.
67. The fee for a Warrant shall be as defined in the schedule of fees. A duplicate Warrant can only be issued upon satisfactory proof being given of the loss or destruction of the original Warrant; the fee for such duplicate shall be as defined in the schedule of fees. The fees in all cases must be lodged with the application.
68. Each Royal Arch Chapter shall be subject to fine as defined in the schedule of fees, or to have its Warrant suspended or cancelled in any of the following cases: omitting to hold a meeting of the Royal Arch Chapter for the space of two years; neglecting or refusing to conform or comply with the Laws and Regulations of the Order; not working in conformity with the Ritual of the Order, as approved by Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter; provided always that the Excellent King, High Priest and the Chief Scribe of the Royal Arch Chapter shall have been previously duly summoned to show cause to the contrary.

In the event of a Royal Arch Chapter being called to show cause against suspension, the Excellent King, High Priest and Chief Scribe thereof may be summoned to attend and shall produce the Warrant and books of the Royal Arch Chapter. The Warrant of a suspended or cancelled Royal Arch Chapter shall forthwith be delivered up to Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter.

If the Warrant of any Royal Arch Chapter shall be suspended or cancelled, the subscribing members thereof at the time of its having incurred such penalty, except such member or members as shall be specifically exempted by name in such order, shall be suspended from all the rights of Royal Arch Masonry, until restored by Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter; should Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter consider such necessary or advisable, said suspension shall be reported to the Grand Lodge of Ireland.

If the Warrant of any Royal Arch Chapter be purchased or procured by any other means than permission from Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter, such Warrant shall be cancelled, and all acts done under such Warrant since the same was irregularly obtained shall be deemed void.

69. The Officers of a Royal Arch Chapter are: Excellent King, High Priest, Chief Scribe, Treasurer, Registrar, Director of Ceremonies, Almoner, Chaplain, Captain of the Host, Superintendent of the Tabernacle, Royal Arch Captain, Captain of the Scarlet Veil, Captain of the Purple Veil, Captain of the Blue Veil and Janitor; the other Officers that may be elected are Stewards. It shall not be competent for any Royal Arch Chapter to be opened or to remain open unless at least six Companions be present, one of whom must be an Actual or Past Excellent King (with Actual or Past High Priest and Actual or Past Chief Scribe), who shall preside. The Royal Arch Degree shall not be conferred unless nine Companions, at least, are present during the entire ceremony.
70. The Officers of all Subordinate Royal Arch Chapters shall be elected annually. A Companion elected to office in any Subordinate Royal Arch Chapter must be a subscribing member in good standing.

The Excellent King and Council elect must be installed by 1st May following their election, except by Dispensation from Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter on the recommendation of the Grand King's Council.

Any Companion elected to be Excellent King, High Priest, or Chief Scribe must be either the actual Master or Past Master of a Craft Lodge at the time of election and must also be five years at least registered as a Master Mason. The Excellent King elect must also have served the Office of High Priest or Chief Scribe or both, unless by special permission of Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter, and before installation as Excellent King he must be installed Very Worshipful Master in a Mark Lodge.

A Companion affiliating from a Royal Arch Chapter under another Constitution, to be eligible for election as Excellent King, High Priest or Chief Scribe, must fulfil all the requirements of his Irish counterpart. e.g. For election to the Chair, he must be a subscribing Past Master of a Craft Lodge and have served the Office of High Priest or Chief Scribe, or both, in an Irish Chapter, except by dispensation. If he be a Past Z or Past First Principal of another Constitution, he must still take the Obligations of an installed King and an installed Very Worshipful Master of a Mark Lodge, wherein he must be installed in the usual way. Otherwise, only in an emergency may he take the Chair in an Irish Royal Arch Chapter or Lodge of Mark Master Masons, if qualified in the latter case.

71. All Royal Arch Chapters shall elect their Officers prior to the 20th of October in each year, and shall without delay register their Officers for the ensuing year. The names of the said Officers shall be submitted for the approval of Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter at its Stated Convocation in November. No subordinate Royal Arch Chapter in Ireland shall, under any circumstances, install its Officers prior to the November Convocation of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter, nor prior to registering their Officers required by Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter Law No. 101, nor prior to paying all Fees and Fines due to the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter at the date of such return, nor prior to receiving the approval of Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter from the Grand Registrar.

72. Royal Arch Chapters outside Ireland, that are designated Southern Hemisphere in the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter records, shall elect their Officers on or before the 20th April in each year, and shall without delay register their Officers for the ensuing year. The names of the said Officers shall be submitted for the approval of Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter at its Stated Convocation on the first Wednesday in May. No subordinate Royal Arch Chapters meeting outside Ireland shall, under any circumstances, install their Officers until they shall have received confirmation from the Grand Registrar, or the District Grand Registrar, that such Officers have been approved.

In the case of Royal Arch Chapters meeting outside Ireland within the jurisdiction of a District Grand Chapter and following confirmation from Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter that all are qualified, the names of Officers duly elected shall be submitted to the District Grand Registrar and he will, in turn, submit them to the Board of General Purposes of the District Grand Chapter. No subordinate Royal Arch Chapters meeting outside Ireland within the jurisdiction of a District Grand Chapter shall, under any circumstances, install their Officers until they shall have received confirmation from the Grand Registrar, or the District Grand Registrar, that such Officers have been approved.

73. Every subscribing member on the Roll of a Royal Arch Chapter under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter (including Overseas) shall pay a subscription as defined in the schedule of fees, as determined by Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter from time to time, following Notice of Motion.

All Dues and Fees shall be payable to Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter at the time of submitting the Registration of Officers to the Grand Registrar as required by Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter Law No. 101.

74. The Excellent King, High Priest or Chief Scribe may not, after his Installation, resign Office until the termination of the year for which he has been elected and remain a member of the Royal Arch Chapter.

In case of death or the expulsion or suspension by Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the Excellent King, the immediate Past King, or in case of his absence or incapacity, the senior Past King (such immediate or senior Past King being a subscribing member of the Royal Arch Chapter) shall rule the Royal Arch Chapter until the next election of Officers and the Installation of the newly-elected Excellent King.

75. Every Royal Arch Chapter shall make by-laws, compatible with the general statutes enacted by Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter. Two copies of such proposed by-laws, and of every alteration made thereto, shall be transmitted to the District Grand Registrar (where the Royal Arch Chapter meets in a District) for recommendation for the approval of the Grand King's Council and in all other cases direct to the Grand Registrar; such by-laws, or any alteration therein, shall not come into operation until approved by the Grand King's Council.

76. An Emergency Convocation may be called at any time by the authority of the Excellent King, or in his absence the High Priest or in their absence the Chief Scribe, but not otherwise. The business to be transacted at such Emergency Convocation shall be stated in the summons, and no other business shall be transacted at that meeting.
77. All communications from and to the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter, a District Grand Royal Arch Chapter or a Subordinate Royal Arch Chapter, or from and to a District Grand Royal Arch Chapter and a Subordinate Royal Arch Chapter shall be read in open Chapter and entered in the minutes. Correspondence should be read as follows; Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter, District Grand Royal Arch Chapter, then all other correspondence.
78. Each Royal Arch Chapter shall have a Seal with its number thereon wherewith to verify the transactions of the Royal Arch Chapter, or other documents.
79. No unvouched visitor shall be permitted to be present at the opening of any Royal Arch Chapter; nor shall he be permitted to visit a Royal Arch Chapter when open, until he has answered satisfactorily such questions as shall be put to him by the Excellent King or by his authority, and has produced, if required, his Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter Certificate.

80. A Brother shall not be balloted for until he has been registered in the Grand Lodge of Ireland, or in a Grand Lodge in friendly communication with it, as a Master Mason for twelve months (except in the case of Military Brethren, when one month will suffice) unless by dispensation from Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter, or during the intervals of their Quarterly Convocations, from the Grand King or his Deputy or his Assistant. He must also have obtained the Degree of Mark Master Mason, before exaltation, and must be a subscribing member, in good standing, of a Craft Lodge.

For a breach of this law a Royal Arch Chapter may be fined, in which case the minimum fine shall be as defined in the schedule of fees.

81. New Candidates: Every subscribing Companion has an inherent right to propose in open Chapter a Candidate for admission to his Royal Arch Chapter, after which the Royal Arch Chapter may refer the name to a Committee of Scrutineers for enquiry and report, but this must be after and not before the actual proposal.

A Brother shall not be balloted for in any Royal Arch Chapter unless he shall have been duly proposed and seconded in open Chapter, and seven days at least shall elapse between the day of proposal and the convocation for ballot; the day either of proposal or of ballot must be a Stated Convocation of the Chapter. The summons for ballot shall notify the name, Lodge number, profession or occupation, and residence of the candidate; also, the names of the proposer and seconder, and shall be sent to every member of the Royal Arch Chapter at least three days previous to the ballot. If a Committee of Scrutineers has been appointed, then they will report their findings prior to the Ballot.

82. It is a fundamental right of every member to be able to express, by the ballot, his unbiased opinion on the desirability, or otherwise of admitting a new member, and after the ballot has been declared no discussion shall be allowed respecting the reason which may have actuated any member in casting his vote, and no attempt should be made directly or indirectly to ascertain how any individual voted.
83. If the ballot is clear (Refer to Law No. 98) then the candidate's details should be forwarded to the local Committee of Inspection, if one exists, for their approval. If a Committee of Inspection does not exist in the District then the candidate's name should be forwarded to the District Grand Royal Arch Chapter for them to enquire as to the suitability of the candidate for Royal Arch Masonry. In either case if a satisfactory reply is received from the Inspection Committee or District Grand Royal Arch Chapter then the Royal Arch Chapter should proceed to initiate the candidate.

The candidate must not be advised that the ballot was clear until final approval has been given by the Committee of Inspection or the District Grand Royal Arch Chapter as set in Grand Chapter Law No. 61.

In the case of an adverse ballot, the Excellent King, if he has any reason to believe that a mistake has been made, may order a fresh ballot.

84. No Brother shall be exalted to the Royal Arch Degree, whether by Dispensation or otherwise, unless his Grand Lodge Certificate shall be first produced to the Royal Arch Chapter in which he is about to be exalted and his name must have been previously approved by the Royal Arch Committee of Inspection where one exists. The Royal Arch Degree shall not be conferred upon more than three Candidates at the same time.

In all cases the conferring of the Mark Master Mason Degree shall take place before the conferring of the Royal Arch Degree.

The conferring of the Mark Master Mason and Royal Arch Degrees shall be done in their entirety, and the conferring of such Degrees takes precedence of all other business.

A copy of Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter Laws and Regulations and Subordinate Chapter By-Laws shall be presented to each Candidate after the final charge in the Royal Arch Degree.

No Royal Arch Chapter shall confer any Degree on any Member or Candidate of another Royal Arch Chapter unless on requisition of such Royal Arch Chapter, signed by the Excellent King and Registrar thereof, and having the Royal Arch Chapter seal affixed.

85. The Minimum Exaltation Fee shall be as defined in the schedule of fees, which sum must be paid in full in one payment previous to Advancement and Exaltation. A Royal Arch Chapter shall not, on any pretence, remit or repay the whole or any part of this sum. Any Royal Arch Chapter exalting a Brother for a sum less than is specified shall be liable to a fine as defined in the schedule of fees as Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter shall impose.

86. If the candidate lives outside the local area within which the Royal Arch Chapter meets (local Committee of Inspection where one exists) then the Royal Arch Chapter shall proceed as directed by Grand Chapter Law No. 81 until the ballot is complete. Upon a satisfactory result from the ballot the Royal Arch Chapter shall forward an enquiry, as to his suitability for Royal Arch Masonry, to a Committee of Inspection within the candidate's home area, if one exists. If no Committee of Inspection exists in the candidate's home area then enquiries should be made to one or more Royal Arch Chapters in the candidate's home area or to the District Grand Royal Arch Chapter as appropriate. Upon a satisfactory reply from one of the foregoing then the Royal Arch Chapter will proceed as directed by Grand Chapter Law No. 83.
87. When a Royal Arch Chapter receives similar inquiries respecting the character of a local resident proposed elsewhere, the reply which must be the result of discussion in open Chapter, should deal solely with his suitability as a member of Royal Arch Masonry at large, and not with his eligibility for admission to that particular Royal Arch Chapter.

Royal Arch Chapters under the Constitution of this Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter shall not Initiate any Candidate whose usual place of residence or domicile is in England or Scotland, or in any place where the Supreme Grand Chapter of England or the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Scotland has exclusive Royal Arch Jurisdiction, without first making all enquiries and obtaining the special permission of the Grand Chapter concerned. This Law shall not apply to members of any University where there is a Royal Arch Chapter confined to members of that University.

A candidate may not be balloted for, who has not at least twelve months residence within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland.

Residents outside the jurisdiction of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland who may return to their native town or district on a temporary visit are not eligible for initiation there until enquiries shall have been made by the Grand Registrar from the Grand Chapter having jurisdiction over the neighbourhood of the Candidate's permanent residence.

A Candidate for initiation rejected by a Royal Arch Chapter shall not be again proposed in the same Royal Arch Chapter until after the lapse of at least six months.

88. The home address of any member of the Security Forces shall not appear on any circular, but his address, the branch of the Security Forces to which he belongs and his place of employment must be submitted on the form sent to the Committee of Inspection.
89. If a candidate proposed for admission be in any physical manner maimed, lame or defective he shall not require dispensation; for, in symbolic Masonry, it is his moral worth, not physical integrity, that justifies his admission.

90. Any Companion ceasing to be a subscribing Member of a Craft Lodge shall not continue to be a subscribing Member of a Royal Arch Chapter.

91. Re-joining Candidate / Lapsed Membership:

A Companion lapsing from membership, for any reason, whether by resignation, or by being struck off the roll for non-payment of dues shall not be permitted to re-join until it is confirmed that he is a member of a Craft Lodge, he has produced his Grand Chapter Certificate, and also, when possible, a Clearance Certificate or Demit from the last Royal Arch Chapter of which he had been a member, from which Royal Arch Chapter a recommendation of him as a joining Companion must be requested and obtained; and read in open Chapter prior to ballot. He must then be proposed, seconded, balloted for and cleared by the appropriate Committee of Inspection or District Grand Chapter as per Grand Chapter Law No. 83. When the foregoing is satisfactorily completed, he may be invited to join the Royal Arch Chapter.

92. Affiliations or joining from another Constitution:

A Companion wishing to affiliate to a Royal Arch Chapter must be a subscribing member of another Royal Arch Chapter under the Irish Constitution. He shall not be balloted for until due enquiry shall have been made and a satisfactory reply received from such Royal Arch Chapter, which shall be read in open Chapter before ballot. Any Royal Arch Chapter knowingly affiliating a Companion who is in arrears of dues in another Royal Arch Chapter shall be held liable for such arrears.

A Companion shall not be balloted for affiliation in any Royal Arch Chapter unless he shall have been duly proposed and seconded in open Chapter, and seven days at least shall elapse between the day of proposal and the meeting for ballot; the day either of proposal or of ballot must be a Stated Convocation of the Royal Arch Chapter. The summons for ballot shall notify the name, Chapter number, profession or occupation, and residence of the candidate; also, the names of the proposer and seconder, and shall be sent to every member of the Royal Arch Chapter at least three days previous to the ballot. It is not necessary to submit the name of a Companion affiliating from a Royal Arch Chapter under the Irish Constitution to a Committee of Inspection.

93. A Royal Arch Chapter wishing to affiliate or admit a Companion who is, or was, a member of a Royal Arch Chapter under another Constitution, which must be recognised by the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland, must first seek approval, via the Grand Registrar of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland, from the Grand Chapter of which the Royal Arch Chapter is a member. This permission must indicate that the Companion is in good standing with the Royal Arch Chapter or left the Royal Arch Chapter in good standing.

When confirmation has been received, via the Grand Registrar of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland, then the process as outlined in Grand Chapter Law No. 83 must be followed as if the Companion was a joining member.

A Companion affiliating from a Royal Arch Chapter under another Constitution must obtain the Degree of Mark Master Mason, if not already in possession of it before being received into the Royal Arch Chapter. No Royal Arch Chapter shall confer the Degree of Mark Master Mason upon a Companion affiliating from a Royal Arch Chapter under another Constitution for a sum not less than that defined in the schedule of fees. (See Mark Master Masons' Law No. 6 and Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter Law No. 85.)

94. Candidates from Grand Royal Arch Chapters not recognised by the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland are not eligible for affiliation and must obtain the Degree of Mark Master Mason and Royal Arch Mason under the Irish Constitution. This means that they must be treated as new joining members.
95. If a Companion seeks affiliation from a Constitution that has been suppressed or which has ceased to work, but which was in Amity up to the time of its suppression or cessation, he must produce his Certificate or a document corresponding thereto, showing that he was a Royal Arch Mason in good standing before the suppression or cessation of the Constitution under which he was Initiated, and the Royal Arch Chapter to which he wishes to affiliate must make all possible enquiries about him. The result of these enquiries must be sent to the Grand Registrar, and the Companion concerned shall not be balloted for until the permission of the Grand King or the Deputy Grand King or the Assistant Grand King shall have been given.

96. Honorary Membership: A Royal Arch Chapter may elect as Honorary Members Companions of eminence or distinction in Royal Arch Masonry, or who may have rendered special service to the Royal Arch Chapter. Such Companions may be of the Irish Constitution, or any other Constitution recognised by the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland. Such Honorary Members shall not be eligible to hold office in the Royal Arch Chapter, or to vote on any question before the Royal Arch Chapter; nor shall any Royal Arch Chapter confer Honorary Membership on one of its own members. The Companion in question must be a subscribing member of another Royal Arch Chapter. The Companion must be proposed and seconded in open Chapter and seven days at least shall elapse between the day of proposal and the meeting for ballot; the day either of proposal or of ballot must be a Stated Convocation of the Royal Arch Chapter.

No annual fee shall be payable to Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland in respect of such Honorary Members, their election shall be on the same terms as affiliates, and the Provisions of Grand Chapter Law No. 105 regarding exclusion shall also apply to them. Should the Companion cease to be a subscribing member of any Royal Arch Chapter his Honorary membership shall be discontinued.

An Honorary Member of a Royal Arch Chapter desiring to become a Member of the Royal Arch Chapter must be proposed, seconded and balloted for in accordance with Grand Chapter Law No. 92.

97. Emeritus Membership: Where a Companion may have rendered signal service to his Royal Arch Chapter, or there are special personal circumstances to justify it, a Royal Arch Chapter may elect a Companion, being a subscribing member of the Royal Arch Chapter, to the dignity of Emeritus Member. Such Emeritus Member shall not be eligible to pay annual dues to his Royal Arch Chapter; but the Royal Arch Chapter will be responsible for paying his Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter dues and District Grand Royal Arch Chapter dues, if any, annually on his behalf. An Emeritus Member, is not debarred from membership of other Branches of the Order; and he shall retain full rights as theretofore, to hold Office, to propose motions and vote on any question before the Royal Arch Chapter.

98. Balloting: Balloting must in all cases be with beans, three or more negatives to exclude. In every case the proposer or seconder must be present at the ballot. At a ballot for Candidates all subscribing members of a Royal Arch Chapter present at the ballot must vote, even if in arrear of dues provided they have attained the rank of Royal Arch Mason. On all other subjects members may refrain from voting if they so desire.

If, upon taking a ballot for a Candidate, the number of beans in the box does not coincide with that of the members present who are entitled to vote, the ballot is void, and it may be held again immediately, or at a subsequent meeting. In the event of an adverse ballot, it must be borne clearly in mind that the Excellent King of a Royal Arch Chapter should have some substantial reason for supposing a mistake to have been made in the first ballot before ordering a second to be taken.

It is a fundamental right of every member to be able to express, by the ballot, his unbiased opinion on the desirability, or otherwise of admitting a new member, and after the ballot has been declared no discussion shall be allowed respecting the reason which may have actuated any member in casting his vote, and no attempt should be made directly or indirectly to ascertain how any individual voted.

99. If there be more than one Candidate for initiation, affiliation or rejoining, then separate ballots must be held, unless the ballot box makes provision for multiple ballots in separate compartments.
100. Every Companion shall be entitled to a Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter Certificate immediately upon his being registered in the books of Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter as a Royal Arch Mason, and the Registrar of each Royal Arch Chapter shall forthwith procure such Certificate. If it shall appear that any Companion has been exalted irregularly, a Certificate shall not be issued to him unless by order of Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter.
101. Every Royal Arch Chapter shall keep the records of its members up to date on the Client Relationship Management System. Access to the Client Relationship Management System will be provided by the Grand Registrar's Office to the Royal Arch Chapter Registrar or Designated person. Records to be kept up-to-date will be directed by the Grand Registrar's Office.

The Royal Arch Chapter Registrar or Designated person shall ensure that all records are up-to-date on or before census day, the 31st December in each year and dues will be charged as per the membership records at that date.

The Royal Arch Chapter Registrar or Designated person shall ensure that the Registration of Officers for the ensuing year shall be completed on or before the 20th October in each year; and at the same time all monies outstanding to the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter shall be forwarded. No Chapter shall install its Officers until they are approved by Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter.

Any Royal Arch Chapter failing to keep the records of its members up to date and register its Officers in strict conformity with this Law shall be liable to a fine as defined in the schedule of fees.

102. Any Companion, any Royal Arch Chapter, the Board of General Purposes of any District Grand Chapter, the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland or the Grand Lodge of Ireland Conduct Committee may bring a charge against any Companion in respect of any act or omission pursuant to Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter Law No. 103 which charge shall be in writing.

If the Companion charged belongs or has belonged to a Royal Arch Chapter in a District Grand Royal Arch Chapter it shall be referred directly to Board of General Purposes of such District.

If the Companion charged belongs to or has belonged to a Royal Arch Chapter not in a District Grand Royal Arch Chapter it shall be referred directly to the Grand Registrar who will consider if a District Grand Royal Arch Chapter could deal with the complaint. If this is not practical then the Grand Registrar shall forward the case to the Conduct Committee of the Grand Lodge of Ireland.

If there shall be any conflict of interest in the aforesaid bodies, the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter shall have the power to request that another body hear the case (this body can be another District Grand Royal Arch Chapter, a committee appointed by the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter, the Conduct Committee itself, or any other appointed body). At all times Companions or bodies should act with fairness.

If, on consideration of the matters alleged in such charge, the District Grand Royal Arch Chapter or the Committee appointed by Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter (the "Appropriate Body") shall find that a prima facie case has been made, then it shall cause to be served on the Companion so charged a summons to attend before the committee empanelled for the purposes of investigating, hearing and adjudicating the said charge (the "Adjudicating Committee"). Such summons shall be served, and the Adjudicating Committee established in accordance with District Grand Royal Arch Chapter By-Laws or if forwarded to the Grand Lodge Conduct Committee in accordance with the Grand Lodge Procedures.

The Adjudicating Committee and the Conduct Committee is to be composed of Companions who have attained the status of Royal Arch Mason and who have been deemed to be suitable to serve.

On satisfactory proof of the service of the summons, the Adjudicating Committee shall at the time and place specified in the aforesaid summons, proceed to hear and adjudicate the charge, whether the Companion charged attends or not, and may from time to time adjourn the hearing and investigation as it shall think fit, and on the conclusion thereof shall report to the Appropriate Body on the following points, namely whether:

1. the charge has been proven, and if so, to what extent.
2. if so, what penalty (if any) should be imposed; and
3. there are any facts and circumstances in connection with the case, which it is necessary or desirable to bring to the attention of the Appropriate Body.

If the Appropriate Body sees fit to impose any sanction other than suspension or expulsion, it shall do so itself and on its own authority.

If the Appropriate Body (other than the Conduct Committee itself) sees fit to impose the sanctions of either suspension or expulsion, it must make a recommendation in writing to the Conduct Committee, setting out the evidence and reasons for their recommendation.

An Adjudicating Committee acting on behalf of the Conduct Committee may, on its own authority, impose any sanction it sees fit, including suspension and expulsion.

The Conduct Committee shall then recommend to the Grand King's Council:

1. impose the said penalty; or
2. decline to impose the said penalty or recommend an alternative penalty.

All decisions of the Grand King's Council shall be advised to the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter at the next stated Convocation.

Any Companion aggrieved by any finding made and/or penalty imposed pursuant to this Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter Law No. 102 may, at any time within one month of same, apply to the Conduct Committee for a review of his case. If the Conduct Committee sees fit, it may, on foot of such an application, arrange for an appeal and/or re-hearing of all or any such aspects of the case as it deems fit in accordance with the Conduct Committee Rules.

The Grand King, or the Deputy Grand King, or the Assistant Grand King may if he thinks fit, in the case of any Companion subject to a misconduct charge, prohibit temporarily such a Companion from attendance at his own or any other Royal Arch Chapter under the Irish Constitution, or at Refreshment in connection therewith, pending investigation of the charge. In Overseas Districts a like power may be exercised by the District Grand King or his Deputy, but in such case, an immediate report must be made to the Grand Registrar. This prohibition must be reviewed after a period of 6 months should the case not be concluded.

103. If an Appropriate Body be appointed by the Conduct Committee to investigate and report upon any complaint, the Companion or Companions who apply for such Committee, shall at the discretion of the Conduct Committee deposit a sum, as defined in the schedule of fees to the said Committee. The Appropriate Body shall have authority to apply the sum or so much thereof as shall be necessary in the discharge of the travelling expenses of the Committee; and the surplus, if any, shall be returned to the Companion or Companions so depositing the same.
104. A Royal Arch Chapter shall have power to strike off its Roll any Member more than twelve months in arrear of dues, provided that at least one month previously application in writing for such arrears shall have been sent by registered letter or recorded delivery to the Companion in arrears, directed to his last known address, together with an intimation that, in the event of his non-payment of the amount, his name will be removed from the roll of the Royal Arch Chapter.

The names and addresses of all Companions struck off for non-payment of dues, together with the amount of arrears due, shall be forwarded to the office of the Grand Registrar, and there be recorded in a register kept for that purpose; and a Companion removed by his Royal Arch Chapter from Membership for such cause, except it be the Royal Arch Chapter of Research No. 222, shall not be affiliated by, nor continue a Member of, nor be permitted to visit any Royal Arch Chapter, either at labour or refreshment, until it shall have been ascertained from the Royal Arch Chapter from which he was removed, that such arrear of dues has been discharged.

Any Royal Arch Chapter knowingly violating this Law shall be held liable for such arrears, and shall pay same to the Royal Arch Chapter of which the Companion was formerly a Member, and shall further pay a fine as defined in the schedule of fees to Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter.

105. A Royal Arch Chapter shall have power to exclude from attendance at any Convocation or function of the Royal Arch Chapter any Companion whose continued attendance may be considered objectionable, or injurious to the Royal Arch Chapter, provided that four-fifths of the subscribing Members present shall so decide at a Convocation specially called to consider the matter. The decision of the Royal Arch Chapter shall be by ballot (with beans). Every subscribing Member, if present when the ballot has been declared open, shall vote, and the decision shall be subject to an appeal to the District Grand Royal Arch Chapter and Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter by the Companion so excluded. The Excellent King shall have power to order a second ballot if he has reason to believe that a mistake has been made in the first ballot but shall report to Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter the circumstances which justified such procedure. A Companion who wishes to remain a member of the Order must continue to pay his Dues to the Royal Arch Chapter or affiliate to another Royal Arch Chapter. Whilst a Companion remains a subscribing member of the Royal Arch Chapter all notices of meetings and dues outstanding must continue to be sent by the Royal Arch Chapter.

106. Ceremony of Constituting a

New Chapter

In the event of the Grand King the Deputy Grand King, or the Assistant Grand King being unable to attend in person, the Grand King may delegate, by written authority, under his hand and Seal, the power to act as Constituting Officers to any three Actual or Past Kings, being subscribing members of a Royal Arch Chapter or Royal Arch Chapters on the Roll of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland.

In the case of a District Grand Royal Arch Chapter the District Grand King, the District Deputy Grand King and the District Assistant Grand King, shall have similar powers.

If the Grand King of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter is present in person, the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter is said to be opened in ample form; if the Deputy Grand King, Assistant Grand King, or in a Royal Arch District the District Grand King, is present, the District Grand Royal Arch Chapter is said to be opened in due form; in all other cases the Royal Arch Chapter is opened in form.

The three Constituting Officers, and the Companions selected to fill the Subordinate Stations, form in procession, and enter the Royal Arch Chapter Room, where the other Companions shall have already assembled. The Volume of the Sacred Law, and the Symbols are borne before the three Constituting Officers by Past Kings or other Senior Companions and placed upon the Altar.

The Officers having assumed their Stations, the Presiding Officer calls the Companions to order, then proceeds to open an Occasional Royal Arch Chapter, for the purpose of constitution only.

(Note: A Director of Ceremonies should be appointed, who here calls upon the Companions to salute the Constituting Officers.)

All being in readiness, and the regalia of the new Royal Arch Chapter having been previously placed on the Altar in front of the Council, the Companions all standing, the Captains of the Veils with their banners lowered, the Chaplain will recite the following Prayer:

“Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth, whose omniscient mind brings all things in review – past, present and to come; Thine omnipotent arm directs the movements of the vast creation; Thine omnipresent eye pervades the secret recesses of every heart; and Thine unspeakable perfections and glory surpass the understanding of the children of men! We invoke Thy benediction upon the purposes of our present assembly. Let this Royal Arch Chapter be established to Thine honour; let its Officers be endowed with wisdom to discern, and fidelity to pursue its true interests; let its members be ever mindful of the duty they owe to God; the obedience they owe to their superiors; the love they owe to their equals, and the goodwill they owe to all mankind. Let this Royal Arch Chapter be consecrated to Thy glory, and may its members ever exemplify their love to God by their beneficence to their fellow men.” Amen.
So mote it be.

Note – A suitable hymn may here be introduced.

The presiding Officer will then explain the object for which the Occasional Convocation of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter has been convened.

The Grand Registrar or Acting Grand Registrar then rises and says:

“Most Excellent King and Council, a number of Companions duly instructed in the sublime mysteries, being desirous of promoting the honour, and propagating the principles of Royal Arch Masonry, having applied to the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter for a Warrant to hold a Royal Arch Chapter in [place of meeting] which having been granted them, they are now assembled, and are desirous of being duly constituted into a regular Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, of having the Royal Arch Chapter dedicated and their Officers installed and invested in due and ancient form.”

The Presiding Officer then directs the Grand Registrar or Acting Grand Registrar to produce and read the Warrant. The Registrar having done so, submits it, together with a Roll of the Officers and Members of the Royal Arch Chapter, with copies of the Laws and Regulations of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland, and the By-Laws of the Royal Arch Chapter for the inspection of the Constituting Officers.

The Director of Ceremonies will then form the Officers and Members of the New Royal Arch Chapter in front of the Council.

Psalm 133 may here be read by the Chaplain, or, if circumstances permit, be chanted by those present.

The Presiding Officer then addresses the Officers elect and members of the New Royal Arch Chapter as follows:

“In the name of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland, and by virtue of its authority, we now constitute and form you our worthy Companions into a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, and from henceforth empower you to act as a regularly constituted Royal Arch Chapter, to work in strict conformity with the Laws and Regulations of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland, and may the Supreme King of Heaven and Earth prosper, direct, and counsel you in all your doings.” So mote it be.

The Chaplain then reads the Benediction as follows:

“The Lord bless and preserve thee. The Lord make His face to shine on thee, and grant thee pardon and peace now and for evermore.” Amen. So mote it be.

(The Ceremony of using the Corn, Wine and Oil may be here introduced.)

A suitable hymn may be sung.

End of Constitution Ceremony.

Dedication

The Companions stand to order. The Chaplain says:

“We do solemnly dedicate this Chapter to the purposes of Royal Arch Masonry, and the closest of ties of Brotherly Love. May the blessing of the Supreme King of Heaven and Earth descend and rest upon its Officers and Members, and ever increase their usefulness and felicity. Glory be to God on High.” Amen

Response: “So mote it be.”

The Captain of the Host announces:

“Excellent King and Council, it is my duty to announce that Companions [Names of Companions] have been regularly approved by the Supreme Grand Chapter to serve respectively the Offices of King, High Priest and Chief Scribe of this Chapter. We know them to be Companions of worth and experience, and we crave permission that they be now Installed.”

The Excellent King then proceeds with the Installation in accordance with the Book of Laws and Regulations.

The Business of the Chapter will be then transacted.

(A suitable Closing Hymn may be sung.)

Ceremony for the Installation of Officers of a

Royal Arch Chapter

E.K. (calls to order). All rise:

“Captain of the Host announce to the Companions that it is the will and pleasure of the Excellent King and Council that we proceed to install the Officers elect of this Chapter.

C. of H. “Companions it is the will and pleasure of the Excellent King and Council that we proceed to install the Officers elect of this Chapter.

I.O. (who must be an Actual or Past King)

“Excellent King and Council, it is my duty to announce that Companions [Names of Companions], have been regularly elected by this Chapter to serve respectively the Offices of King, High Priest, and Chief Scribe, for the ensuing year [state year], and that their election has been duly ratified by Supreme Grand Chapter. We know them to be Companions of worth and experience, and I crave permission that they be now Installed.”

Note: The clause in italics, delegating authority to the Installing Officer, to be omitted from the following in the event of the Excellent King himself conducting the ceremony.

E.K. “In compliance with your request and by virtue of the powers entrusted to me by Supreme Grand Chapter, I delegate my authority for the time being, to you, and empower you, in conjunction with myself and Past King [name] to form a Council of Installed Kings for the purpose of this Installation.”

The Installing Officer takes the chair of King, the Excellent King that of High Priest, and a Past King that of Chief Scribe.

- I.O. “Accordingly, I declare this Council of Installed Kings to be now in session. Let Companions [Names of Companions], approach the Pedestal, and let the Superintendent of the Tabernacle see that the Symbols thereon are arranged in proper order.”

Here the letters of the tripartite word are arranged on the equilateral triangle by the Superintendent of the Tabernacle.

- I.O. “Companions, in olden times the Members elect of the Council were required to wash their hands in running water, and to put their shoes from off their feet; so we now require you to advance to the Pedestal with clean hands and reverential feet, prepared to discharge to the best of your ability the important duties you are about to undertake.”

“Do you solemnly promise to observe the By-Laws of this Chapter, and of the District Grand Chapter, the Laws and Regulations of the Supreme Grand Chapter, and the ancient landmarks of our Order?”

“Do you solemnly promise to rule this Chapter or any other over which you may be called upon to preside, fairly, justly, and equitably?”

“Do you solemnly promise to preserve the Symbols, Regalia, and Warrant of this Chapter, and to transmit the same to your lawful successors?”

These questions having been answered in the affirmative, the Installing Officer addresses the members of the Chapter:

I.O. “Companions, inasmuch as you have heard the promises by which your rulers are bound, we shall proceed to communicate the secret instructions. We call upon all who have not been installed as Chief Scribe, with the exception of the Chief Scribe elect to withdraw from the Chapter Room for a time.”

All remaining having been vouched as Installed or Past Masters of Craft Lodges and duly obligated Chief Scribes, the secret instructions of Chief Scribe are communicated to the Chief Scribe elect, after which he retires. The High Priest elect is, in like manner, instructed and retires. The Excellent King elect then receives his secret instructions, is installed and invested.

When the Excellent King has been thus installed, the newly elected High Priest and Chief Scribe are each admitted alone, installed in their respective chairs and are invested.

The Companions are then re-admitted.

I.O. “Companions, during your absence, the members of the Council have been duly installed. Assist me, therefore, to salute them in accordance with ancient custom.”

The Companions are then formed in procession, and headed by the Installing Officer and Past Kings, advance in single file by the North, each pausing in front of the Council Chamber and saluting with the sign of the Degree.

I.O. “Nothing now remains but to lock up our secrets in a safe and sacred repository with fidelity, fidelity, fidelity.”

The mystical letters are then disarranged.

The Subordinate Officers are then invested and proclaimed in groups of three.

1. Captain of the Host, Superintendent of the Tabernacle, Royal Arch Captain.

E.K. “Companions, the Offices to which you have been elected are among the most important in the Chapter, placing you in intimate connection with the Council, and requiring Masonic skill and experience in the highest degree. As your Companions have thought you worthy to discharge those duties, on behalf of the Council, I now invest and proclaim you as regularly appointed Captain of the Host, Superintendent of the Tabernacle, and Royal Arch Captain for the ensuing year.”

2. Captains of the Veils

E.K. “Companions, the Offices to which you have been elected are subordinate in station, but hardly inferior in symbolic teaching. It appertains to you to mark the progress of those who have sojourned in outer darkness towards light as revealed in our mysteries, and it behoves you to accompany them in their onward course. On behalf of the Council I now invest and proclaim you as regularly appointed Captains of the Veils for the ensuing year.”

3. Treasurer, Registrar, and Janitor

E.K. “Companions, the importance of the Offices to which you have been elected is so manifest that we have only to express our concurrence in the trust your Companions have reposed in you, and our assured expectation that you will discharge those duties with zeal, discretion, and fidelity. Accordingly, on behalf of the Council, I now invest and proclaim you as Treasurer, Registrar, and Janitor for the ensuing year.”

4. Director of Ceremonies, Almoner and Chaplain

E.K. “Companions, the responsibilities of the respective Offices to which you have been elected are to ensure that our Ceremonies are performed correctly and with dignity; that we will be ever mindful of the needs of others; and that due reverence be ever accorded to the Supreme King of Heaven and Earth. In token of the confidence your Companions have placed in you, and on behalf of the Council, I now invest and proclaim you as “Director of Ceremonies”, “Almoner” and “Chaplain” for the ensuing year.”

Note: If the Offices of Treasurer and Registrar be vested in one Companion, a Deputy should be appointed for the purpose of this ceremony to preserve the number three. Whenever possible, these Offices, and that of Superintendent of the Tabernacle and Director of Ceremonies and Chaplain, should be held by Past Kings.

Prayers, Scriptural Extracts and Charges for the use of

Royal Arch Chapters

Prayers

To be used at the Opening of a Royal Arch Chapter

Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth, we invoke Thy Benediction upon the purposes of our present assembly. Let this Chapter be consecrated to Thy glory, and may its members ever exemplify their love to God, by their beneficence to their fellow-men.

Amen. So mote it be.

To be used at the Closing of a Royal Arch Chapter

By the wisdom of the Supreme King may we be directed, by His strength may we be enabled, and by the beauty of His holiness may we be incited to perform the obligations enjoined upon us, to keep inviolably the mysteries unfolded to us, and invariably to practise all those duties out of the Chapter which are inculcated in it.

Amen. So mote it be.

To be used at the Installation of the Excellent King and Council

O Lord, Supreme King of Heaven and Earth, endow these Companions with wisdom and understanding that they may discharge the responsibilities and obligations of the offices of King, High Priest and Chief Scribe according to Thy divine precepts.

Amen. So mote it be.

Obituary Prayers

We brought nothing into this world, it is certain we will take nothing out, the Lord gave and the Lord has taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord. (This introduction should open each prayer).

1. The Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth is our God for ever, a guide and support even through dark valleys of the shadow of death. Our Companion [Companions Name] has been called by Him from labour in the terrestrial world to partake of Divine refreshment in the heavenly realms.

Let us meditate on the virtues of his character, his benevolence, where the needy are supported, the distressed comforted, the woes of widows assuaged, the tears of orphans dried up. May we see in the precepts of our faith and in our Masonic teaching the principles which influenced our departed Companion to adore his Maker, to love his fellowman who taught him how to live and die.

Surround his family and all who mourn his passing with your love, compassion and strength. Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth, extend to us your everlasting favour and blessing, crown us with life immortal and to your name be Glory and Honour for ever. Amen. So mote it be.

2. Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth, we honour you as the God of time and eternity, ruling the destiny of all your people. As it has been your Will to take from us our (Distinguished) Companion, who is dear to our hearts and who like us has been raised on the Five Points of Fellowship and so has hastened to the service of the needy Companion, to the welfare of others, keeping hidden what was given in confidence, never hesitating to stretch out a helping hand or imparting a timely warning with good advice to those in need of such.

Give those who mourn the passing of this Companion, comfort, support and strength at this time of sadness and separation. When our earthly labour has ceased may we be raised with him to the fadeless light and immortal life of your heavenly kingdom where Brotherly love, relief and truth shall prevail through eternal ages in the presence of your own Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth – to you be Glory and Honour for ever. Amen. So mote it be.

3. Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth, we acknowledge you as our God of Infinite Wisdom, of Time and Eternity, ruling the destiny of all people, of Angels of Heaven, you are aware of when a sparrow falls. It was your Will to take from us our departed Companion, now sadly missed by us and by his family circle. We now celebrate his life as a Brother Freemason and the measures of his worth and every single life he touched while here on Earth. We now pay our last respects as we meet in Brotherhood here, we thank you for memories held dear, acknowledge the privilege of calling him

Brother, carrying him in spirit until we meet again in your nearer presence. To you our God be Honour and Glory. Amen. So mote it be.

4. The sons of the righteous are in the Hand of God, there shall no torment touch them, they are at peace.

Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth at whose creative word we were made in your image and at whose decree our Earthly life comes to an end. We thank you for our Late (Distinguished) Companion, partaker with us in honourable and lawful secrets, concealed from the eyes of the World.

We express gratitude for his earnest endeavours in the labours of Freemasonry, for observing the Five Points of Fellowship and the connecting links of Brotherly love, relief and truth which unite Freemasons throughout the world.

We praise you that he has endured fortitude and in the hour of trial did not fail you.

We ask for your consolation and strength on all who mourn his passing, fill them with your peace which the world cannot give.

Grant O God that when our time on earth comes to its end that we, with our departed Companion may rise from the tomb of transgression to shine with the stars for ever and ever. Amen. So mote it be.

5. Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth, the melancholy event which has brought us to call to mind the death of our friend and Companion [Companions

Name] whose loss we deplore, should convey to our hearts a reminder of the sacredness and uncertainty of life, the vanity of earthly hopes and our inevitable destiny, not knowing the hour when for each of us our dust shall return to the earth as it was, and our spirit returns to the God who gave it.

In humble dependence on the mercy of the Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth, we trust that when our earthly life is complete we will re-join our departed Companion in the Grand Chapter above where you, our Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth lives and reigns for ever.

Deal kindly O God with all who mourn our Dear Companion's passing, remembering it is decreed in Heaven that one day we too must sever connections with those we love on Earth and that God will comfort those left to mourn.

May the Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth in his Infinite Goodness and Mercy towards us crown our hope of everlasting bliss in the realms of boundless Eternity and to Him be Glory and Honour. Amen. So mote it be.

Scriptural Extracts
and Prayer at the Exaltation of a Candidate

Royal Arch Degree

A. Exodus 3, Verses 1 - 5.

Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro, his father-in-law, the priest of Midian; and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb. And the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him, in a flame of fire, out of the midst of a bush; and he looked, and, behold the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed. And Moses said, I will now turn aside and see this great sight why the bush is not burnt. And when the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses and he said, Here am I. And He said, draw not nigh hither, put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

Prayer

Almighty and Supreme King of Heaven and Earth, we, Thine unworthy servants, implore Thee to bestow Thy blessing on this our Convocation. Grant that the Brother deemed worthy by us to participate in the light revealed in our mysteries, may obtain a share of Thy Divine favour, and so profit by our lessons, as ever to keep in view the welfare of his Companions, the good of our Order, and the Glory of Thy Holy Name.

Amen. So mote it be.

or

Most Holy Lord God, who didst lead Thy Chosen People through the wilderness – after the covenant of Thy grace – look down from heaven, Thy holy dwelling, upon us (Thy assembled conclave) with tenderness and compassion; and grant we beseech Thee that all our works begun, continued and ended in Thy Holy Name, may ever magnify Thy glory, and that at the last day we may obtain an inheritance in Thy Kingdom.

Amen. So mote it be.

B. Numbers 16, Verses 29 - 33.

If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the Lord hath not sent me. But if the Lord make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the Lord. And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them; and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods, they, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them; and they perished from among the congregation.

C. Exodus 3, Verses 13 and 14.

And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, the God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?

And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM; and He said Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

D. Exodus 4, Verses 1 - 5.

And Moses answered and said, but behold, they will not believe me, nor harken unto my voice; for they will say, the Lord hath not appeared unto thee. And the Lord said unto him, what is that in thine hand? And he said a rod. And He said cast it on the ground, and he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it. And the Lord said unto Moses, put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand; that they may believe that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob hath appeared unto thee.

E. Exodus 6, Verses 1 - 3.

Then the Lord said unto Moses. Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh; for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land. And God spake unto Moses and said unto him, I am the Lord, and I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

F. Exodus 4, Verses 6 and 7.

And the Lord said furthermore unto him, put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold his hand was leprous as snow. And He said, put thine hand into thy bosom again, and he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and behold it was turned again as his other flesh.

G. Exodus 17, Verses 9 - 13.

And Moses said unto Joshua, choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek; tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand. So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed: but Moses' hands were heavy: and they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat thereon: and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side: and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

H. Exodus 4, Verses 8 and 9.

And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither harken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign, and it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither harken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land; and the water which thou takest out of the river shall become blood upon the dry land.

I. 2nd Chronicles 34, Verses 1, 2, 8 and 14.

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years; and he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, and walked in the ways of David, his father, and declined neither to the right hand nor to the left. Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the Lord his God. And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the Lord, Hilkiah the priest found a book of the law of the Lord given by Moses.

And he stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stayed.

Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren; and the Spirit of the Lord came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

H. Exodus, 6, Verse 3.

And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob by the name of God Almighty, but by My name JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

Charges

1. Reception of a Candidate who has Passed the Veils

E.K. Brother, thus far in accordance with our Masonic Rites you have exemplified the virtues which are, we trust, characteristic of the Master Mason, and you will have observed that the illustrations by which these lessons have been impressed upon you are drawn from miraculous episodes in the life of the Great Lawgiver, who led the Chosen People in their wanderings through the wilderness.

The desire you have evinced to prosecute the search after truth, as revealed in our mysteries, warrants us in admitting you to further Light, and unfolding to you mysteries which belong to a subsequent epoch in the history of the Chosen People, and are intimately connected with the legendary history of the founders of the Craft.

Finding that you have profited by your previous instruction, and that you are disposed to aid in this work, we authorise you to be taken hence and prepared for labour.

2. Royal Arch Investiture

E.K. These are the Insignia of our Grand Masters, as is evident from the care with which they have been deposited, and the place in which they have been found.

This Book is assuredly the Volume of the Sacred Law – long lost – now symbolically recovered by your exertions.

Brethren, in recognition of your zeal, and as a reward for your industry and perseverance, we exalt you to the Degree of Royal Arch Mason, and we invest you with this Badge and Apron.

We authorise the Superintendent of the Tabernacle to recite the Legend appertaining to this Degree, and to explain the meaning of the Symbols which you have brought to light.

3. Charge to a Newly-Exalted Royal Arch Mason

E.K. Companion – By the consent and assistance of the Members of this Chapter, you have now been exalted to the Degree of the Royal Arch, at once the foundation and the keystone of our ancient Masonic Structure. As, in the restoration of the Temple, the Divine Treasures were discovered after five hundred years of darkness, so in the Degree of the Royal Arch, the summit and completion of Craft Masonry, the loss recorded in the legend of the Master Mason is repaired, the hidden word and the hidden symbol are restored to light. The Rites through which you have passed illustrate the duty of earnest and persevering search after Truth; the incidents of that search symbolise our dependence upon each other and mark the helplessness of each of us without the aid of his Companions. The mysteries of the Degree, tripartite, yet triune, impress the lesson that our union is strength.

Lastly, you are here to learn that infinite wisdom preserves, and unspeakable goodness blesses every work that has once proceeded from the hands of the Most High, by Whom man, who is by nature the child of ignorance and error, has been called from the darkness of the shadow of death to the Light of everlasting Life, through the revelation of His Holy Will and Word.

(The newly-exalted Companion is then saluted according to ancient form)

Prayers, Scriptural Extract and Charge for the use of
Mark Master Masons' Lodges
Prayers

To be used at the Opening of a Mark Master Masons' Lodge

May the favour of the Great Overseer of the Universe rest on this meeting; may we satisfy Him in all our work; and may we finally meet our reward from His Infinite Justice and Mercy. Amen. So Mote it be.

To be used at the Closing of a Mark Master Masons' Lodge

May the favour of the Great Overseer of the Universe rest upon us and all regular Mark Master Masons; may our work be accepted, and may we be finally marked fit for that House not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens. Amen. So Mote it be.

At the Advancement of a Candidate

Vouchsafe Thy blessing, Great Overseer of the Universe, on the labours of Thy servants, and grant that this our Brother may receive the mark of Thy Divine approval, and finally be advanced to an honourable place in Thy Eternal Temple. Amen. So Mote it be.

Scriptural Extract

Mark Degree

Ezekiel 44, Verses 4 and 5.

Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord; and I fell upon my face. And the Lord said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the Lord, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

Charge to a Newly Advanced

Mark Master Mason

Brother, while I congratulate you on having been thought worthy of advancement to the Degree of Mark Master Mason, I charge you to remember that, in Masonry, your assiduity should ever be commensurate with your duty, and that your obligations ever extend with your advancement.

The first care of the Mark Master Mason should be so to rule his life that all his actions may stand the inevitable test of the Great Overseer's Square, and that he himself may not be thrown aside, like the imperfect work of the impostor or of the negligent or unfaithful craftsman, but may at last be declared worthy to receive that approving mark which will admit him to form part of the spiritual building, the house not made with hands, eternal in the Heavens.

The ceremonial through which you have been advanced will teach you that none can claim the reward of other men's labours, nor attempt to obtain what is not due, without detection and disgrace; that it is your duty to repair, with patience and humility, even involuntary wrongs and errors; and that you must never despair of your ability to fulfil your obligations until you have exhausted every effort to discharge them.

Above all, in this Degree you will learn the fallibility of human judgment; you will find comfort from the belief that all your work will be tried by a Judge whose Wisdom and Justice are infinite; and you will find hope and consolation in the remembrance that the stone which the earthly builders rejected, possessing merits unknown to them, became at last the headstone of the corner.

(The newly advanced Brother is then saluted according to ancient form.)

14. The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Instruction, at a Stated or a Special Convocation shall have power to enact Rules regulating its course of proceedings at both Open and Special Convocations, subject to the approval of Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter.
15. The election of Members shall take place by ballot at either of the Stated Convocations, or at a Special Convocation summoned for that purpose. No candidate shall be elected unless he receives the votes of at least two-thirds of the Members present.

The summons convening the meeting shall specify the name, address and Royal Arch Chapter of each Companion proposed, and the names of the three members recommending him.

16. Every Past King proposed for Membership shall possess the qualifications as stated in Rule No. 1. Each such proposal of a Candidate on the appropriate form, which can be obtained from the Registrars, shall be lodged with the Registrar or the Assistant Registrar at least eight weeks prior to the next Stated Convocation.

18. Any elected Member of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Instruction who shall not have attended one Stated Convocation and at least two Open Convocations in the preceding session, without due cause or reason, shall cease to be a Member of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Instruction unless the Members present at the October Stated Convocation shall determine otherwise.

19. The Members of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Instruction are entitled, in addition to their proper Masonic costume (see Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter Law No. 26), to wear a Jewel of the design approved by Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter (see Figure No. 14).

The Jewels issued to Members are the property of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter, and each Jewel is to be returned to the Grand Registrar for Instruction when the holder has ceased to be a Member of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Instruction.

20. The foregoing Rules shall constitute and regulate the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Instruction of the Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Ireland. They shall have force and effect from the 30th March 2022.

Clothing & Insignia

Supreme Grand Royal Arch Chapter Clothing & Regalia

APRONS

The Apron of the Order is crafted from white lambskin, with dimensions ranging from 300 mm to 355 mm in depth and 355 mm to 406 mm in width. It is bordered with a scarlet ribbon that is 50 mm wide, and features a central 12 mm gold lace. The border of the flap is designed to be 40 mm wide, ensuring a distinct and formal appearance.

At the centre of the flap, there is a triangle made of silk or satin, which is edged with a gold border. Within this triangle, the triple tau is displayed in gold-spangled embroidery. The colour of the silk or satin ground varies according to rank: scarlet for Kings and Past Kings, and white for all other Companions.

Two gold tassels are suspended from beneath the flap, attached by scarlet ribbon that is 50 mm wide, adding to the ceremonial detail of the Apron.

The Grand King, Deputy Grand King, and Assistant Grand King are entitled to wear Aprons similar to those worn by other Grand Officers, but with the addition of three bars of gold lace on the scarlet ribbon and a gold fringe not exceeding 50 mm in depth. The Grand King may also have a Crown featured in the centre of the Apron, further distinguishing this rank.

SASH

The Sash forms an integral part of the regalia and is crafted from plain scarlet ribbon, measuring 100 mm in width. It is worn beneath the coat, draped from the right shoulder to the left hip, in accordance with established ceremonial practice.

At the point where the Sash is tied, it is adorned with the triple tau, rendered in gold-spangled embroidery. The background material for this emblem differs according to rank: for Kings and Past Kings, the ground is scarlet silk or satin, while for all other Companions, the ground is white silk or satin.

Further distinguishing the rank of the wearer, Grand Officers, Past Grand Officers, District Grand Officers, Provincial Grand Superintendents of Royal Arch Masonry and their Deputies, Members of the Grand Chapter of Instruction, Members of the Grand Master's Chapter, and Actual or Past Kings have their Sashes finished with a gold fringe that is 50 mm deep. In contrast, the Sashes worn by all other Companions are trimmed with a fringe of scarlet silk, maintaining clear visual distinctions between ranks within the Order.

Gauntlets

The gauntlets worn by Grand Officers and District Grand Officers are distinguished by their specific dimensions and embellishments. These gauntlets must not exceed 200 mm at their deepest point, ensuring uniformity and adherence to ceremonial standards.

Each gauntlet is crafted from scarlet silk, signifying the high rank of the wearer. The edges are meticulously finished with gold lace that measures 13 mm, in width, providing a refined and distinguished appearance.

To denote the specific office held by the wearer, every gauntlet is adorned with the appropriate jewel or badge corresponding to the officer's elected position. This ornamentation serves both as a mark of honour and as an indication of the bearer's role within the organisation.

It is a requirement that all Grand Officers and District Grand Officers, whether currently serving or having served in the past, wear these gauntlets as part of their official regalia.

District Grand Officers

Chains of Office

The privilege of wearing Chains of Office is reserved for specific high-ranking officers within the organisation. The following officers are authorised to wear Chains of Office:

- The Grand King
- The Deputy Grand King
- The Assistant Grand King
- The Grand High Priest
- The Grand Chief Scribe
- The Grand Treasurer
- The Grand Registrar
- District Grand Kings
- District Deputy Grand Kings
- District Assistant Grand Kings
- Provincial Grand Superintendents and their Deputies

Additionally, a Past Grand King is also entitled to wear a Chain of Office.

COLLARS

The collars designated for the Grand Director of Ceremonies, Grand Chaplains, District Grand Kings, District Deputy Grand Kings, District Assistant Grand Kings, Provincial Grand Superintendents, and their Past Deputies are to be made of scarlet ribbon. Each collar features three bands of gold lace, each measuring 13 mm in width. The ends of these collars are squared at the front and finished with a gold fringe, with the fringe not exceeding 40 mm in depth.

Similarly, the collars for the Past Deputy Grand King, Past Assistant Grand King, Past Grand High Priest, Past Grand Chief Scribe, Past Grand Treasurer, Past Grand Registrar, Past District Grand Kings, Past District Deputy Grand Kings, Past District Assistant Grand Kings, Past Provincial Grand Superintendents, and their Past Deputies are also constructed of scarlet ribbon. These collars incorporate three bands of gold lace, 13 mm in width, with squared ends at the front and adorned with a gold fringe, which must not exceed 40 mm in depth.

The collars worn by all other Grand Officers, District Grand Officers, and elected Members of the Grand Chapter of Instruction are to be crafted from scarlet ribbon, with each collar measuring approximately 100 mm in width. These collars are edged with gold lace not exceeding 13 mm in width, creating a distinguished and uniform appearance. The design of the collars features squared ends at the front, which are further adorned with gold fringe. The depth of this gold fringe is not to exceed 40 mm, ensuring consistency with the standards established for such regalia.

The collars worn by Officers of Subordinate Royal Arch Chapters are constructed from scarlet ribbon, with each collar measuring approximately 100 mm in width. To provide a distinguished appearance, these collars are edged with gold lace, which must not exceed 13 mm in width. Additionally, it is permissible for the number or Badge of the Chapter to be embroidered in gold on the front of the collar, further identifying the wearer's Chapter and enhancing the overall regalia. However, these collars for Subordinate Chapter Officers do not include the gold fringe, thereby differentiating them from those worn by Grand Officers and Past Grand Officers.

Representatives of Grand Chapters

Representatives of Foreign Grand Chapters are permitted to wear Aprons, Collars, and other Insignia as prescribed by the Grand Chapters which they represent. These items of regalia must adhere strictly to the specifications set forth by their respective Grand Chapters, ensuring that their attire accurately reflects the traditions and requirements of their home jurisdictions.

In situations where no specific regalia has been prescribed by the foreign Grand Chapter, Representatives shall wear Aprons, Collars, and Insignia that are of the same style and colour as those worn by District Grand Chapter Officers. This approach ensures a consistent and dignified appearance, maintaining uniformity within the Order while accommodating the absence of distinct foreign regalia.

Jewels of Office

The Jewels of Office are to be presented in a manner that distinguishes their rank and service. In accordance with the established guidelines for regalia, these jewels are to be suspended from collars as previously described. This ensures a uniform and dignified appearance, reflecting the traditions and standards of the organisation.

The Jewel of the Order

The Jewel of the Order, while not a compulsory item, is traditionally worn on the left breast. Its use serves as a mark of distinction among members, with specific guidelines for its display based on office and achievement within the organisation.

Wearing of the Jewel

- Principal Officers and Past Officers: The three Principal Officers, as well as all Companions who have previously served in any of these positions within a Subordinate Chapter, are entitled to wear the Jewel of the Order. For these individuals, the jewel is worn suspended from a scarlet ribbon, signifying their office or former office.
- Other Companions: All other Companions who have not held the offices of Principal Officer in a Subordinate Chapter may also wear the Jewel of the Order. In these cases, the jewel is worn suspended from a white ribbon.
